No. 9.THE
PADDINGTON
CEMETERIES
ACT OF 1911.An Act to Provide for the Resumption of Certain Disused Cemeteries at Paddington, near Brisbane, and for the Conversion of the same to other Public Uses.

[ASSENTED TO 30TH NOVEMBER, 1911.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Queensland in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Paddington Cemeteries Act of 1911."

Resumption
of Paddington
Cemeteries.

2. All those parcels of land situated in the county of Stanley, parish of North Brisbane, which are described in the Schedule to this Act, and which heretofore were granted in trust or otherwise held in possession and used for the purposes of burial grounds or cemeteries, but which have for many years ceased to be so used, are hereby resumed from the respective trustees or other the persons having in law possession of the same, and the subsisting trusts thereof are hereby determined.

From and after the passing of this Act, all such parcels of land shall become Crown land, and shall be dealt with under this Act.

The Deeds of Grant numbered respectively 3754, 79644, 79645, 82377, and 17772, issued in respect of certain of the said parcels of land, are cancelled.

Assets and liabilities.

3. All assets and liabilities of or attaching to the trustees or other the persons in possession of the said parcels of land in connection with the same shall, from and after the passing of this Act, pass to and be vested in and shall be discharged by the Secretary for Public Lands as representing His Majesty.

Paddington Cemeteries Act.

4. The Secretary for Public Lands, upon the application of any of the relatives of any deceased persons who have been interred in any of the said cemeteries made within twelve months after the passing of this Act, shall exhume the remains of such deceased persons (so far as such remains can by reasonable diligence be discovered) and remove the same, together with any monuments, tombstones, or other memorials of such deceased persons, to the Toowong Cemetery or some other cemetery agreed upon with such relatives, and shall there cause such remains to be reverently reinterred.

5. The said parcels of land shall be reserved for such public purposes under "The Land Act of 1910" * as the Governor in Council shall think fit:

Provided that, in order to prevent any disturbance of public worship in the church erected on subdivision 633B and used by members of the Church of England, a part of the land comprised in Deed of Grant No. 3754, referred to in the Schedule to this Act as the Episcopalian Burial Ground—that is to say, such area thereof as is comprised in a parallelogram immediately bounded on the south by subdivisions 633A, 633C, and 633B, and having a frontage of half a chain to Hale street—shall be reserved from public use, and shall be placed under the control of trustees either permanently or temporarily as the Governor in Council may direct.

6. The expenses incurred by the Secretary for Public Lands in the execution of this Act shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is hereby appropriated for the purpose.
