Humane Society of Australia.
Denis died suddenly at his daughter's residence, Cooran on Friday, 21 July 1933.

[1654] William Percival Jackson SPARKES	U1 579	Portion	Section	Grave
		20	20	19/20

Born on 17 September 1880 in Brisbane to William James Sparkes, master butcher & Mary Ann (née Scott), William Percival Jackson Sparkes attended the Fortitude Valley State School. Working for Allan & Starkes, William signed up on 20 August 1914 in Brisbane and was assigned to the 3rd Field Artillery Brigade 7th Battery. Service at Gallipoli, saw William receive honorable mention in Divisional Orders 161 on 13 July 1915. Rising in rank to Quartermaster Sergeant, a heart condition invalided William back to Australia. William rejoined his old employer before unsuccessfully standing for the seat of Buranda in 1918. William farmed at Kuraby, where he died of an aortic aneurism on 15 September 1921.

Select Sources

Archives Search, The State of Queensland (https://www.archivessearch.qld.gov.au/)
Family history research service, The State of Queensland 2021 (https://www.familyhistory.bdm.qld.gov.au/)
One Search, The State of Queensland (State Library of Queensland) 2025 (https://onesearch.slq.qld.gov.au/discovery/search?vid=61SLQ_INST:SLQ)
Trove, National Library of Australia (https://trove.nla.gov.au/)
French, Dorothy (1980). To Queensland in 1867.
William Sparkes diary, 9 June 1915-5 January 1916, Mitchell Library, State Library of New South Wales https://acms.sl.nsw.gov.au/_transcript/2014/D22079/a6754.html

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

Heroic Deeds

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Walk

LEFT: Medal - National Shipwreck Relief Society of New South Wales, AD by Rodney Start, Museums Victoria, https://collections.museumsvictoria.com.au/items/55199, used under CC BY 4.0/ image cropped from original

RIGHT: Medal - Royal Humane Society of Australasia, AD by Rodney Start, Museums Victoria, https://collections.museumsvictoria.com.au/items/53166, used under CC BY 4.0

BOTTOM: Queensland Police Medal for Merit; G. Tutill; 1909; QP642-1 by Queensland Police Museum https://ehive.com/collections/3606/objects/1964085/queensland-police-medal-for-merit, used under CC BY NC SA/ image cropped from original

April 2025

William Francis HICKS	Q 100	Portion	Section	Grave
		13	23	20/21

The eldest son of William Hicks, butcher & Caroline (née Burbury), William Francis Hicks was born in Hobart, Tasmania on 12 April 1869.
Jemima Gough married William in Brisbane on Wednesday 23 November 1892.
William died at Sandgate on 07 February 1894.

Alexander JUNNER	Y2 659	Portion	Section	Grave
		14	20	1

Alexander Junner was born on 02 August 1861 in Lossiemouth, Scotland to George Junner & Isabella (née Anderson).
In 1886 Alexander was presented a gold medal by the Marine Board of the National Shipwreck Relief Society of New South Wales, assisting in the rescue of the Cahors as first mate aboard the Burwah on 10 June 1885. Less than a month later, on 3 July 1885, Alexander rescued a crew mate, who accidentally fell overboard from the Burwah as it left Brisbane bound for Maryborough, for which he was awarded the Royal Humane Society's bronze medal.
Jessie Campbell Newlands married Alexander in Brisbane on Friday 01 March 1895. Alexander, of Dayboro, died on Tuesday, 13 September 1938

Alexander GOODALL	M2 96	Portion	Section	Grave
		13	76	14/15

Born in Kirkcaldy, Fife, Scotland on 15 May 1856, Alexander Goodall was a son of David McLean Goodall, sea captain & Mary Ann Louisa (née Lawrie).
Cassandra McEwen married Alexander in Brisbane on Tuesday 17 September 1878.
Alexander was awarded a certificate of merit for his actions on 06 March 1881, saving the life of a man at Laguna Bay, Noosa. On 21 June 1886 Alexander was awarded the Clarke Silver Medal for saving a drowning man near the Noosa River bar. Alexander died on Tuesday 17 November 1931.

Joseph BERRY	H1 23	Portion	Section	Grave
		11	14	4/5

Joseph Berry was born in Brisbane on Thursday, 11 July 1850 to Joseph Berry & Mary Ann (née Poppy). Joseph worked for the Queensland National Bank, rising to the position of manager. His job took him to Cunnamulla, Fortitude Valley, Charleville and Warwick during 23 years of employment.
Justice Sarah Matthews married Joseph in Brisbane on Tuesday, 23 February 1875. In 1880, while based in Cunnamulla, a daytime robbery took place in that Queensland National Bank branch
Joseph died in his Albion residence on Wednesday 20 March 1912.

Thomas Kimberley BRAITHWAITE	B2 523	Portion	Section	Grave
		18	80	1/2

A son of Thomas Farrer Braithwaite, railway official & Sarah Jane Eliza (née Foster), Thomas Kimberley Braithwaite was born in Queensland on Saturday, 27 June 1903. Thomas was working on a farm near Toogoolawah, Brisbane Valley when one day he jumped into action to save a woman and child. Injured from the attempt, Thomas was transported to Ipswich, where he lingered for three months before dying in the Ipswich General Hospital on Friday, 01 January 1926.

John CARRIGG	W2 575	Portion	Section	Grave
		7A	167	11

John Carrigg was born in Ennistymon, County Clare, Ireland on 28 November 1878 to Michael Carrigg, shopkeeper & Catherine (née Griffin).
On 27 November 1908 John was sworn into the Queensland Police Service. Less than a year later, on 20 September 1909 a seemingly routine evening turned into a rescue near Margaret and Short Streets, Brisbane. Constable Carrigg received the Police Medal, Humane Society medal (1911) and King's Police Medal (1913) for his actions.
John died of heart failure at Goodna on 17 July 1937.

Newton BARTON	R2 750	Portion	Section	Grave
		7A	142	7

Charles Hasting Barton's first wife, Elizabeth (née Basedow) gave birth to Newton Barton in Maryborough, Queensland on Monday, 14 March 1870. Newt became a champion sculler. Nellie Barrett married Newt on Tuesday, 5 November 1901.
The Nellie sailed from Yeppoon on Monday 30 July 1928 on a week-long cruise carrying Newt and two companions. A whale encounter the following afternoon saw Newt awarded the bronze medal of the Royal Humane Society. When recovered, Newt and his family relocated to Brisbane, where Newt built boats.
Newt died in a private hospital in Brisbane on Tuesday, 1 January 1935.

Leonard Edwin TWIGG	E4 439	Portion	Section	Grave
		7	52	13/26

The birth of Leonard Edwin Twigg, son of Charles Twigg and Mary (née Canty) occurred in Queensland on Sunday, 28 July 1901.
Leonard, an Edward Street, City grocery store worker residing at Normanby Terrace, Kelvin Grove, took his sailing dinghy, an Australian Sharpie, Vivona into Moreton Bay on Sunday 01 April 1923. By day's end, Leonard had swum about four kilometres through shark infested waters to secure assistance for his four passengers. The Royal Humane Society presented Leonard with a silver medal on 23 July 1923 in recognition of his bravery. In early December of 1923, public subscription had raised enough funds to present Leonard with a new boat.
Margaret McLellan married Leonard in Brisbane on Saturday, 9 August 1930.
Leonard died on Thursday, 29 February 1968.

Denis Thomas CANNIFFE	P2 23	Portion	Section	Grave
		7A	115	11/12

Denis Thomas Canniffe was born in Clonakilty, County Cork, Ireland to Denis Canniffe and Margaret (née Sullivan). Denis had a varied career.
Mary Lynch married Denis in St Mary's Church, Maryborough, Queensland on 28 November 1882.
Denis saved people from drowning in Maryborough, Brisbane and recorded as Bundaberg & Gladstone too, however it was Denis' actions in Bundaberg on 22 February 1889 that saw him rewarded with the Clarke Gold Medal from the Royal