DOCTOR JOHN THOMSON	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	11	65	18

John Thomson was born to John Thomson and Sarah Ewen 31/5/1847 in Edinburgh. Educated at Edinburgh High School and Edinburgh University he arrived in Brisbane a young man in September 1876 as a surgeon in the immigration service and soon achieved Surgeon Superintendent also a Colonel in the Qld. Vol. Force.

DOCTOR WILLIAM FREDERICK TAYLOR	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	12	49	7

William Frederick Taylor was born 27/3/1840 to Joseph Taylor and Hannah Lambert in London. At the age of 2 he went with his parents to Canada. He graduated from Queen's University, Kington, Canada with Honours and obtained a degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1861. In 1863 he moved to Australia.

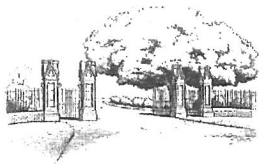

DOCTOR JOHN URE	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	12	37	14

John Ure was born to James Ure (solicitor) and Sarah Keable on 22/7/1840 in Edinburgh. Married to Eugenia Collis 1864. Arrived Moreton 23/5/1892

JOHN HAMILTON aka DINWOODIE	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	6	18	4

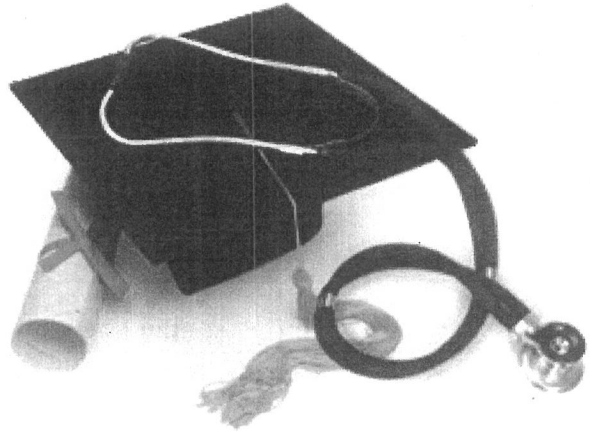

John Hamilton born 19/8/1841 to John Dinwoodie (saddler) and Janet McFarlane in Melbourne. He claimed to be educated in Melbourne and a private tutor in England. Back here but in Rockhampton attracted by the goldrush by 1868 in Gympie his name was John Hamilton and had become a Magistrate. He also made a number of unsubstantiated claims which appear dodgy. With no formal qualifications he also acted first as a Doctor and later as surgeon to a hospital.

Sources
'BDM Queensland Index Search', The State of Queensland (Department of Justice and Attorney-General), 1995-2013
BCC grave search
Trove, Digitised Newspapers and More (2016)
ancestry.com.

A Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc Guided Heritage Walk

"IT ONLY TAKES A DEGREE"

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. Version 1, 7 July 2019

Compiled and presented by Darcy Maddock

PROFESSOR ERROL SOLOMON MEYERS	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	3	22	22

Errol Solomon Meyers born South Brisbane 9/8/1890 to Ernest Ralph Meyers (dentist) and Savine Lenneberg. Schooled at Southport and BGS. A 1914 degree from Sydney University and House Physician, resident pathologist and resident radiographer he also saw service with the A.I.F in WWI.

DOCTOR MAX BERG	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	3	24	6

Max Berg born c1898 to Isidor Berg and Hedwig Preuss in Berlin. He was a GP in Steglitz a suburb of Brelin after graduating sometime in the 1920s. He escaped Nazi Germany for London in April 1936 and studied for a medical degree in Edinburgh University which enabled him to register as a medical practitioner here in Australia.

DOCTOR ERNEST SANDFORD JACKSON M.B., Ch.B.,	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	2A	6	8

Ernest Sandford Jackson was born 18/7/1860 Sandford, Victoria to John Henry Jackson and Mary Ann Bowtell. Educated at Geelong C. of E. Grammar School and Trinity College Melbourne University. He and his wife nurse Christina Bain settled on Lang Farm between Toowong and St Lucia. He served in the A.I.F in WWI.

DOCTOR JAMES HILL	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	1	130	34

James Hill was born 7/11/1841 in Haltwhistle, Northumberland, England to James Hill and Margaret Elliot. Degree of M.D. Glasgow and L.R.C.S. Edinburgh. Practiced in Kensington and migrated to Australia 1882 because of his health and after the death of his father.

DOCTOR JAMES O'NEIL MAYNE	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	49	2

James O'Neil Mayne born to Patrick Mayne and Mary McIntosh in Brisbane 28/1/1939. Schooled at B.G.S. and a B.A. from Sydney University and L.R.C.S from University College London plus a M.R.C.S. in 1890. He and his sister Mary were well known for their philanthropy.

DOCTOR JOHN JOSEPH MULLEN	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	41	26

John Joseph Mullen was born in Dublin to Joseph Denis Mullen and Mary Alice MacDonnell on 6/6/1829. First schooled in Broadwood, England he then entered the Irish College in Rome in 1845 with the intention of joining the priesthood. He returned to Ireland in 1849 and took the first steps to Medicine and obtained his degrees at the Dublin College of Surgeons and other medical institutions, became a ships doctor on the "Maryborough" bound for Brisbane.

DOCTOR KEVIN IZOD O'DOHERTY	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	58	27

Kevin Izod O'Doherty Irish nationalist and medical practitioner was born 7/9/1823 in Dublin, son of William Doherty, solicitor and his wife Ann McEvoy. In 1842 he commenced his studies at the original School of Medicine, Peter Street, Dublin but in May 1848 became involved with the Young Ireland movement and as co-editor of the nationalist Irish Tribune was sentenced to transportation for treason-felony at Dublin in August.

DOCTOR CLARENCE PATRICK MISKLE	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	36	26

Born to John Miskle and Alice Burns 1/8/1900 at "Sunny Hill", Lue, NSW to John Miskle and Alice Jane Burns. Sunny Hill near Mudgee was a sheep property in the Miskle family for 4 generations. He graduated at 22 years of age. After running medical practices in various country towns in NSW he came to Brisbane early 1941 to purchase a Windsor practice.

DOCTOR LILIAN VIOLET COOPER	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	8	69	13/14

Lilian Violet Cooper born 11/8/1861 Chatham, Kent to Henry Fallowfield Cooper and Elizabeth Shewell. Despite parent's objections she entered London School of Medicine for Women in 1886, completed the course in October 1890 and, after passing the conjoint examinations of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, the Royal College of Surgeons, Edinburgh, and the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Glasgow, received a licence from Edinburgh and arrived in Brisbane 1891.