10. Elizabeth Mary Ellen Nixon	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	1	107	1

Rifle shooter

Elizabeth was born in January 1884 in Devon England, the second child of Lieutenant Michael Henry Savage and Ellen Fule. She came to Australia in 1886 on board the ship 'Dorunda' with her parents and brother. She started competing in rifle shooting at competitions as a teenager and was only 17 when she won the QRA ladies match and then won it again for the next two years. She was a pioneering Australian sports shooter and the first female member of the QRA and lived at the old Toowong Rifle Range (now Anzac Park). Lizzie passed away on 20 February 1961 at the age of 77.

Sources

- Ancestry.com
- Attorney-General
- BDM Queensland Index Search', The State of Queensland (Department of Justice and
- Brisbane History Group
- Facebook: Old Brisbane Album
- Queensland State Archives
- State Library of Queensland
- Trove, Digitised Newspapers
- Wikipedia

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc

Guided Heritage Walk

1901
Miss Elizabeth Savage
First woman to shoot in a
King's or Queen's Prize

Lizzie Savage (Source:Facebook)

Sports women and men

Including some unusual sports!

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. Website www.fotc.au
Version 1, 6 September 2026 Compiled and presented by Melissa Wren

1. Jean McGregor-Lowndes	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	4	16	20

Businessperson and sports promoter

Born 16 April 1887 in Toowoomba, to Edward McGregor and Mary Jane Williams, Jean was a successful businesswoman with commercial properties and cinemas. She became very interested in all women's sports and spent a lifetime helping and encouraging young women to play sport.

2. John William McLaren	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	11	20	17

Cricketer

Born 22 Dec 1886 in Toowong to William McLaren and Elizabeth McIntyre. Excelled in union, sailing and particularly cricket where he became recognised as one of Queensland's fast bowlers and played in one Test in 1912. He died aged 34 from diabetes on 17 Nov 1921.

3. Henrietta Diddams	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	11	45	5

Croquet player

Henrietta was born on 17 February 1871 in Kew, Victoria to Robert Hicks and Sarah Harlin. She was interested in all sports and competed successfully in croquet. She died on 6 October 1920 aged 49 and Canon Garland presided over her funeral.

4. William John Barker	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	12	33	15

Rifle shooting

William was born in Ballarat on 27th December 1863 to Captain Peter Barker and Eliza Waugh. William was a champion 'bell ringer' and took his bells on his many travels but he excelled at sports such as football, boxing and particularly rifle shooting.

5. Lincoln Gregory Winch	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	18	33	13A

Triathlete

Lincoln was born on 3 June 1959 and was a triathlete, regular runner and bike rider who had a life-long interest in sport and fitness and he passed away aged 48 on 26 April 2008.

6. Nevin Noel Leu	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	18	154	7

Rugby player

Nevin was born in Brisbane on 5th June 1913 to Charles Leu and Teresa Porter. He was an A grade rugby league player at the age of 16 and also played union. When 16 he scored a try and kicked two goals in a grand final win. He played for Bretts Rugby Union, then progressed to A grade for Valleys as five-eighth. He died aged 25 on 4 May 1939 of a bile duct disorder not long before he was to be married.

7. Newton Barton	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	142	7

Oarsman

Newton Barton was born on 14 March 1870 in Maryborough, Queensland. His knickname was Newt. He was the Maryborough Grammar School's first champion oarsman. He died on 1 January 1935 aged 64. A lengthy poem was written about him and published in the newspaper.

8. Daniel Joseph Hassett	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	151	1

Whipcracker

Born at Benalla, Victoria on 29 May 1867 Daniel was the second of 13 children of John Hassett and Winifred Brann. As a young man he was a prominent footrunner in the days when the sport was booming. But, he was more famous as a champion whipcracker and performed for the King of England. At the age of 76, Daniel passed away on 14 April 1944.

9. Kate Elise Feez	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	5	68	3

Rode to the hounds

Kate was born on 19 December 1866 in Dalby, Queensland to George Blaxland Molle and Eliza Jane Lord. Kate played golf in ladies and mixed competitions and often played golf with her brother Dr Eric Molle and she was quite successful. She was very active in the Brisbane Hunt club, and rode in dangerous hunts often in terrible weather. Kate enjoyed good health up until her last brief illness. She died on 22 August 1947 aged 81.