Carrie Mabel BADGER	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Elgin, Illinois	11	59	7

Caroline Mabel Hewitt was born in Elgin, Illinois on 21 August 1861 to Darius Hewitt and Jane Mabel (née McLean). Joseph Stillman Badger married Carrie in Elgin, Illinois on 13 September 1882. Joseph arrived in Brisbane c. mid 1896 to electrify Brisbane's tramway system. Their son Richard became a physical chemist, developing "Badger's rule", relating the stretching force constant for a molecular bond and the length of that bond. Carrie died in St Helen's Private Hospital about 9 o'clock on Wednesday 07 July 1909.

Relland Allen STEWART	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Lynn, Essex, Massachusetts	8	48	1A

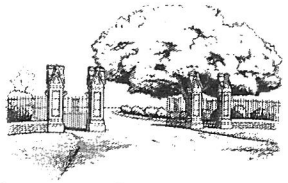

Relland Allen Stewart was born in Woodstock, New Brunswick, Canada c. 1925, to Bernice Mary (née McConkey) and Clarence Relland Stewart, a grocery store clerk. Polyxeni (Pauline) Aniftos married Relland in Brisbane on 30 August 1946. Relland worked for the Maritime Services, USA Navy. Relland, of 52 Grey Street, South Brisbane, but late of Lynn, Massachusetts, was found dead beside his motorcycle on Ipswich Road, Moorooka at 1:10 am 08 November 1946.

5848 Charles James KELLY	Portion	Section	Grave
link | San Francisco	25	49	15

Charles James Kelly, born in San Francisco, California on 29 April 1884, lost his parents before he turned 10. Charles' first professional boxing bout (as Dick Cullen) was in San Francisco in October 1901. In 1904 and 1905 Charles fought in Australia before heading to South Africa in 1906, returning home after the San Francisco earthquake to help his brother. Charles returned to Sydney on 29 December 1909 aboard the RMS Makura, Charles' only Brisbane bout was on 11 June 1910 at the Brisbane Stadium. Pearl O'Brien married Charles on 10 February 1913 in Perth, Western Australia. Retiring from professional boxing in 1915, Charles turned to training and managing boxers and owned trotting horses. Charles enlisted in the AIF in Melbourne on 07 August 1916, returning to Australia on 03 March 1919. Charles died on 25 July 1959.

Select Sources

"Deceased Search", Brisbane City Council [https://graves.brisbane.qld.gov.au/]
"Family History Research", The State of Queensland, 2013. [https://www.qld.gov.au/law/births-deaths-marriages-and-divorces/family-history-research/]
[http://onesearch.slq.qld.gov.au/primo_library/libweb/action/search.do]
Trove Digitised newspapers and more", National Library of Australia [trove.nla.gov.au

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

USA

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Walk

https://d-maps.com/carte.php?num_car=17975&lang=en

⓪ New Jersey
① San Francisco, California
② Brooklyn, New York
③ Jacksonville, Florida
④ Cincinnati, Ohio
⑤ Newport News, Virginia
⑥ Wisconsin
⑦ New York, New York
⑧ Washington DC
⑨ Elgin, Illinois
⑩ Lynn, Massachusetts

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. Version 1, 2018

Rev Theodore OSBORNE	Portion	Section	Grave
link | New Jersey	6	27	17

Theodore Osborne was born in Bergen County, New Jersey, USA on 27 April 1839 to Sophronia (née Osborn) and Rev Michael Osborne. For his health, Theodore boarded a whaler in 1862 for a long sea voyage, eventually landing in Sydney. Working as a teacher took Theodore to NSW's Broulee district, where Esther Baldwin married Theodore on 26 September 1866. They had eleven NSW born children. From 1877 Theodore served the Presbyterian Church of NSW, mainly at the Taralga parish, From 1883 Theodore moved his family to the Richmond River district. Theodore was naturalised on 26 November 1890. Theodore died in Brisbane on 18 November 1914.

38248 Joseph William BOURNE	Portion	Section	Grave
link | San Francisco	13	55	4/5

Joseph William Bourne, the second son of Emily (née Hobbs) and Joseph Orton Bourne, was born in Brisbane on 10 October 1897. Jack, an audit clerk, enlisted in the AIF on 28 March 1917 and was assigned as a gunner to the field artillery reinforcements. On 13 January 1920, Gunner Bourne boarded the ss Carmania in Liverpool, as AIF personnel proceeding to Australia via America. Gunner Bourne disembarked in New York engaged in a temporary position with Price, Waterhouse & Co. and received his AIF discharge on 01 April 1920, while staying in New York. Jack migrated to California aboard the SS Ventura, arriving in San Francisco on 13 October 1924. Phillis Walton Perillat, a physician and surgeon, married Jack in San Francisco on 07 September 1928. Jack died in San Francisco on 07 September 1934 and was inurned at Cyprus Lawn Garden Memorial Park, Colma on 22 October 1934.

George Palmer BALL	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Brooklyn, New York | Jacksonville, Florida	13	70	7/8

George Palmer Ball, of Camden Street Dublin, Ireland, was baptised on 28 March 1806, the second son of Thomas and Jane Ball. Isabella Elizabeth Haslewood married GP Ball, Esq 15th Bengal Native Infantry in Kotergherry, Madras, India on 20 August 1829. They travelled to Exeter, England, where their eldest daughter was born, before the family relocated to Launceston, Tasmania. Based at Mountford, Norfolk Plains, Tasmania, GP served as a JP in 1846-47. GP left Tasmania for Victoria in the late 1840s, before taking his large family to England in 1852 aboard the Swift II. GP was listed as a real estate agent in the 1865 New York State census. GP died of typhoid fever in Jacksonville, Florida on 18 September 1878 and was buried in Old Jacksonville Cemetery, Florida.

John Graeme BALSILLIE	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Cincinnati, Ohio	13	71	17/18/19

John Graeme Balsillie, the eldest son of James Pearson Balsillie and Eliza (née Johnston), was born in Toowong on 11 September 1885. Graeme's father died in 1889. In 1903 the family migrated to England aboard the Suevic. Graeme then travelled to China, Russia and Siberia studying telegraphy. Carmen Bertha L L Poleth married Graeme in Fulham, London in late 1909. Graeme returned to Australia in 1911, taking the position of Radio-Telegraph Engineer of the Commonwealth. Graeme oversaw the establishment of the coastal radio system then resigned his position at the end of 1915. Graeme sold the Australian Government his Balsillie Rain Simulator and Procuration Plant, conducting experiments with it from 1915-1919. Commercial application of his Light Projecting Reflector for vehicle headlamps took Graeme to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he died of nephritis on 10 July 1924 aged 39 years, Survived by his daughter, Graeme's ashes are here.

Arthur Stanley BENSON	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Newport News, Virginia	12	16	9/10

Arthur Stanley Benson, a son of Eliza Ann (née Pearson) and William Benson, was born in St Kilda, Victoria on 23 January 1864. In 1888 Sub-lieutenant A S Benson was Hon Secretary of the Naval Brigade Rifle Club. In 1893 Arthur, a clerk, lived in Dorin Court at the corner of William and Margaret Streets, Brisbane with his brothers. Arthur died off Newport News, Virginia on 09 December 1916.

Helen Dugald & Anna Almyra STREET	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Wisconsin	12	39	24

Helen Dugald Robertson was born in Wisconsin, USA in 1858 to Charles Robertson, a blacksmith and Christina (née Shallcross). William Street, white ant and borer expert, married Helen, a woollen mill clerk, on Thursday 25 August 1881 at the residence of the bride's father, Patch Grove, Grant County, Wisconsin, USA. The couple sailed from Glasgow on 11 October 1881, arriving in Moreton Bay on 28 January 1882 aboard the Brodick Bay. The Streets had two Queensland-born sons. Helen died on 07 October 1907 in South Brisbane.

Anna Almyra Robertson, a daughter of Charles Robertson, a blacksmith and Christina (née Shallcross), was born in Wisconsin, USA in January 1863. In 1900 Anna was a schoolteacher in Portland, Oregon. William Street married Anna in Brisbane on 26 November 1910. Anna died in Brisbane on 17 December 1922.

Eliza Caroline & Evelyn DUTTON	Portion	Section	Grave
link | New York & Washington DC	12	41	27

Eliza Caroline Archdall was born to Margaret Ellen (née Murray) and William Archdall, farmer, in Castletown, County Tyrone, Northern Ireland on 05 November 1866. Henry Stephen Dutton married Caroline in Brisbane on 01 August 1888. Following Henry's death in 1901, Caroline and two daughters moved to the USA. Dying in Manhattan, New York on 13 February 1942, Caroline was buried the next day at Ferncliff Crematory, Ardsley, New York.

Evelyn, a daughter of Eliza Caroline (nee Archdall) and Henry Stephen Dutton, was born in Queensland on 07 August 1889. Moving to the USA, Evelyn worked as a secretary. Evelyn Dutton died in Washington DC on 12 July 1965. Repatriated to Australia, Evelyn was buried here on 09 March 1966.