MICHAEL & ELIZA O'CONNELL	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	16	9

Eliza Lyons aka O'Connell daughter of William Lyons and Margaret Smith O'Brien. Born Carlow in Co. Carlow 18 May 1841. She claimed to be the grand niece of William Smith O'Brien.
Michael O'Connell born County Kerry 29 September 1820 to parents John O'Connell and Mary Foley. Family story is an elopement with a lady of position. Michael and Eliza never married but obviously much in love with each other.

THOMAS MICHAEL FOLEY	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	18	11A

Tom as we all knew him in the 40s and 50s even by myself, was born 1910 in Korong Vale, Victoria son of James Foley and Theresa Hanrahan. He was the grandson of Denis Foley and Mary Crowley and "They came from Ireland". A journalist and radio announcer for 4BK and in my opinion the best race caller of all.

INSPECTOR THOMAS SLATTERY Qld Police	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	9	4

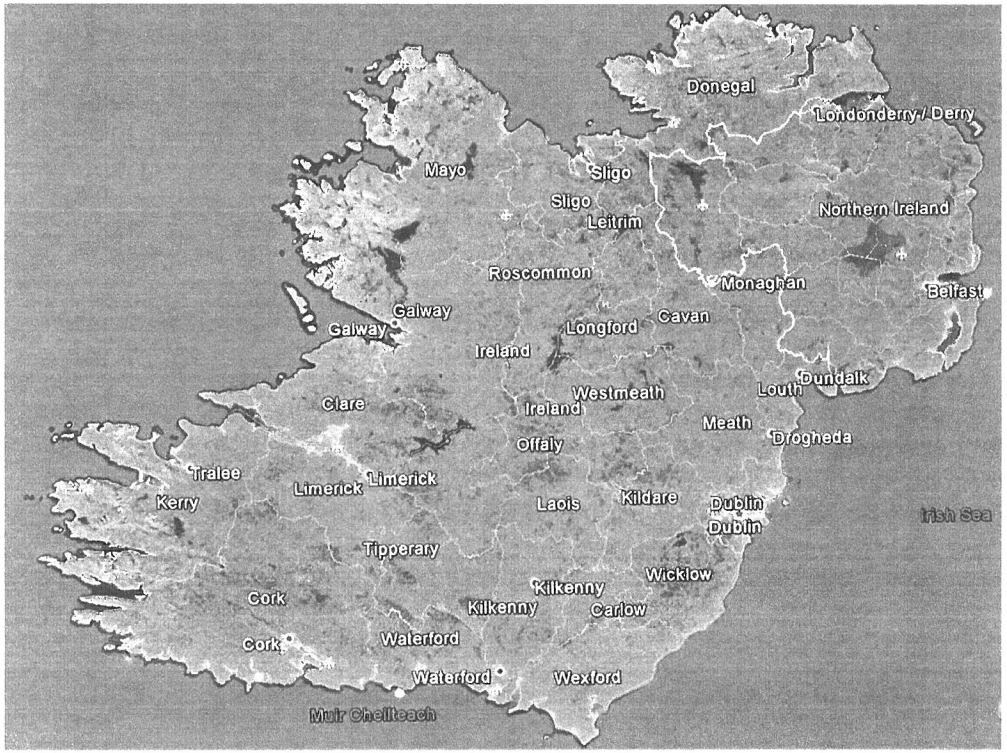

Slattery was born 1824 at Ballaglass, County Tipperary, Ireland to Edmund Slattery and Mary Ann McMahon. After emigrating, he served some seven years as a police officer in New Zealand and Victoria. He was promoted to First Class Detective in 1867 and again promoted to the Inspector of Detectives in July 1876. Over 80 police officers attended his burial and his headstone was erected through the contributions made by 136 members of the Police Force

Sources
'BDM Queensland Index Search', The State of Queensland (Department of Justice and Attorney-General), 2015
Trove, Digitised Newspapers and More (2015)
heritage-register.ehp.qld.gov.au
adb.anu.edu.au/biography
www.parliament.qld.gov.au/apps/formermembers/memberBio1.aspx?m_id=162
www.queenslandplaces.com.au/
http://www.yourbrisbanepastandpresent.com/
Qld Police Museum
Supreme Court Library/Judicial Profiles

A Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc Guided Heritage Walk

THEY CAME FROM IRELAND

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. Version 3, 6th March 2016

Compiled and presented by Darcy Maddock with research assistance of Lyn Maddock

THE O'SHEA FAMILY	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	100	4

TIMOTHY JOSEPH O'SHEA BORN 6-5-1832 KILLARNEY IRELAND a famed judge of horses and cattle and heavily involved in horseracing.
PATRICK JOSEPH O'SHEA BORN 1866 BRISBANE QUEENSLAND A top legal man with O'Shea, O'Shea, Corser and Wadley and held many positions in the Queensland Turf Club.
TIMOTHY JOSEPH O'SHEA BORN 1860 KILLARNEY IRELAND also with O'Shea, O'Shea, Corser and Wadley a picturesque figure in both legal and sporting life in Brisbane.

HON. PATRICK REAL	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	153	7

Patrick was born March 1846 in Pallasgreen near Limerick to James Real and Ellen Donegan. At the age of 4 he arrived with his family on the Emigrant which was a typhus cursed ship when it arrived in Moreton Bay. 19 passengers died on the trip and a further 26 at Dunwich. He went to school in Ipswich but had to leave school at the age of 12. He was needed to help support the rest of his family in very hard times.

INSPECTOR ANDREW O'DRISCOLL	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	153	13

The Inspector was born in County Cork Ireland around 1844.
He arrived in Brisbane in 1867 and had been with the Royal Irish Constabulary prior to leaving Ireland. A man of talent he worked as an accountant, a mining prospector and station manager before joining the Queensland Police 9-1-1867.

PATRICK TALTY	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	18	18/19

Patrick was born in Co. Clare, Ireland 1858. He at one stage had the Hamilton Hotel in Kingsford Smith Drive and then the Exchange Hotel in Edward Street followed by the Royal Hotel in Queen Street. A keen racing man he won the Queensland Cup with Goldsmith in 1900. His constant brushes with the law and a certain policeman made the newspapers.

DENIS O'CONNOR	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	16	3

Denis was born in County Limerick and was an apprentice in the drapery trade. He entered Australia in 1877 via Adelaide with 5 shillings in his pocket. His first job was on a station in S.A. at 25 shillings a week and keep. He headed to Sydney and by 1879 was in Brisbane at Finney Isles. He became very successful and was a wellknown rower and was responsible for the Commercial Rowing Club and the boat house built by him on the Brisbane River was known as O'Connor's Boatshed. He was involved in most sports including horseracing.

BARTLEY FAHEY M.L.C.	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	16	12

Bartley was born in New Quay, Co. Clare 15-10-1836 to Peter Fahey and his wife Margaret Mary (nee Manning). He arrived in Moreton Bay on the "Alfred" in September of 1858 and was listed as a labourer. He first comes to notice in the Customs service in Maryborough in 1860 whilst still a young man. He married Agnes Ann Corser in 1876

JOHN GEARY Qld Police	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	1	14

Acting Sergeant John Geary I.S.O. Born in Ireland to John Geary and Catherine O'Donough. Service number 71 joined the service in 14-9-1872. Served in many parts of the state and one of the investigators in the Gatton Murders

WILLIAM MOONEY	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7	13	12

William was born in County Carlow c 1849 according to the passenger list of the "Persia". His parents Richard and Mary Mooney nee Shortell brought their family to Australia via the "Persia" to Brisbane. 5 boys and a girl came with them from Ireland. Horseowner, sportsman, leading bookmaker (Bookie) and the guiding light of the transition of Tattersalls from its minor role with the Queensland Turf Club to its present status standing in its own right. Monument erected by his fishing mates.