Gustav Edward Bergemann was born in Klein Nakel, West Prussia (Nakielno, Poland) in 1857. The Bergemann family migrated from Hamburg to Bowen aboard the Herschel, arriving on Saturday, 12 July 1873. Anna Juliane Pacholke married Gustav on Friday, 19 December 1879 in Brisbane and they settled in Harcourt Street, New Farm. A cabinetmaker with John Hicks and Company for about 30 years, Gustav retired in 1926. After Anna's death in 1927, Gustav moved in with a daughter at Harcourt, Moorooka, where he died on Saturday, 8 August 1936.

Bror Martin Otto THEORELL	X 634	Portion	Section	Grave
		11	54	8

Born in Sweden in 1840 to Sven Lorentz Theorell and Sofia Vilhelmina (née von Schwerin), Bror Martin Otto Theorell was a teacher of languages. Bror was in Auckland, New Zealand for about 9 years before migrating to Melbourne in 1877. In Melbourne for about 8 years, Bror worked for a while as an assistant in a public library. Moving to New South Wales, Bror spent around 4 years there prior to settling in Queensland in 1890. Without property, cash or relatives in the colony, Bror applied for admission into the Benevolent Institution, Dunwich on 13 September 1892, from where he was dismissed on 31 March 1897. Living at Kangaroo Point, Bror Martin Otto Theorell, died of phthisis on Monday, 14 July 1902, the day he was to return to Europe.

Max Karl Albert LUTTSCHWAGER	C1 881	Portion	Section	Grave
		12	58	18

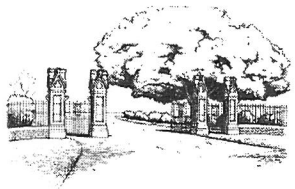

Max Karl Albert Luttschwager was born on Tuesday, 28 July 1874 to Albert Luttschwager and Johanna (née Jahnke). Max, Marine-Ingenieur aboard the SMS Condor, became ill travelling from Herbertshöhe (Kokopo), German New Guinea to Moreton Bay and died aboard ship at 5:30pm on Monday, 24 February 1908. Buried in Toowong Cemetery with naval and military honours two days later, the funeral was well attended. Max's original memorial was unveiled on Thursday, 25 March 1909.

Armand Theodore RANNIGER	K1 632	Portion	Section	Grave
		11	45	1

Born in 1832, Armand married Mary Emma Bland in Ipswich, Queensland, on Saturday, 18 October 1862. In late 1864, Armand became Consul for His Royal Highness the Grand Duke of Oldenburg and the King of Prussia. From 25 July 1868 Armand became Consul for the North German Confederation, before being approved as Consul for His Majesty the Emperor of Germany, King of Prussia from 28 September 1871. Armand resigned as consul in 1879. Armand died on Thursday, 17 December 1914.

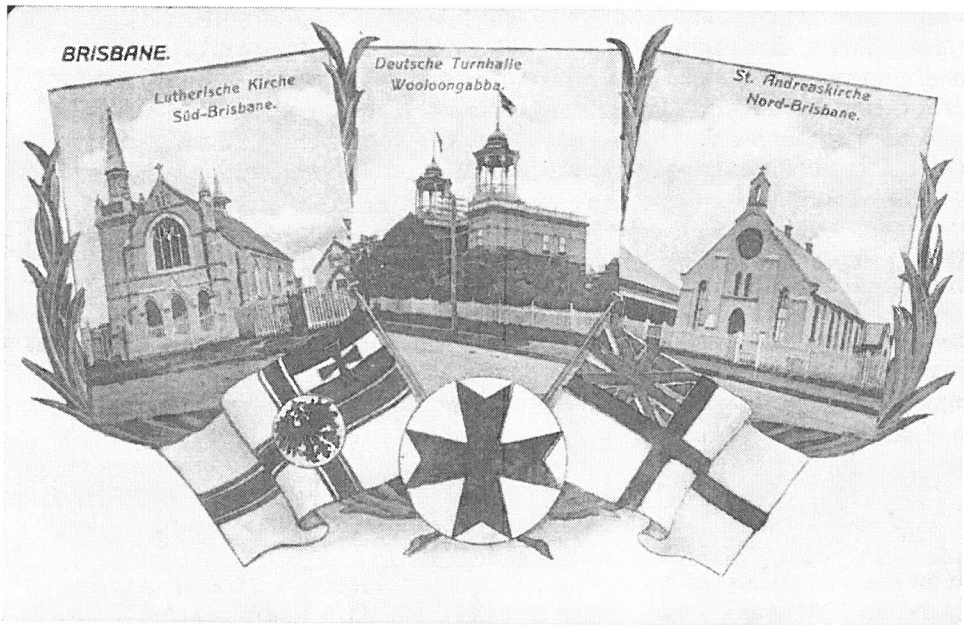

Louise Caroline BARTELS	A1 793	Portion	Section	Grave
		11	30	1/2

Louise Caroline Ussinger was born in Altona, Hamburg on Friday, 17 February 1832. Otto Carl Ferdinand Bartels married Louise in Brisbane's Registry Office on Thursday, 13 August 1863. The family lived at 490 Boundary Street, Spring Hill from about 1883. Louise owned several properties in Brisbane. Aged 73 years, Louise died on Monday, 6 November 1905.

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

Auf Wiedersehen

Lutheran Church at South Brisbane, St. Andrew's Church at North Brisbane and the German Club at Woolloongabba, Brisbane, 1912
Brisbane John Oxley Library, State Library of Queensland; 2003

October 2023

Johann Georg THONE	I 975	Portion	Section	Grave
		4	9	9/10

Johann Georg (John George) Thone, a son of Catherine and John Thone, was naturalised in Queensland in 1870. In November 1875, John sold his 7 acre Enoggera farm, with three acres of corn and an a half-acre orchard. Residing and farming in Indooroopilly, John died on 11 April 1887. Due for burial in the Indooroopilly Cemetery, a grave was hastily prepared for John at Toowong Cemetery on 12 April 1887.

Behr Raphael LEWIN	S 760	Portion	Section	Grave
		3	8	10/11

Born on Friday, 19 December 1828 in Lobsens, Prussia (Łobżenica, Poland), Behr Raphael Lewin was a son of Joseph Lewin and Esther (née Behr). Travelling as a photographic artist, Raphael advertised his services around Deniliquin, NSW in 1859 and then went into partnership with a jeweller as Lewin & Harris in Ruthven Street, Toowoomba from 1862-3. Raphael then opened R Lewin & Co, a general store, near Bungil Creek, in a village that developed into Roma. In late 1875, during an European tour, Zelinda Francis married Raphael in Marylebone, England. Raphael purchased and erected a warehouse at 127 Charlotte Street, Brisbane in 1888. Residing at Richmond Villa, Turbot Street, Raphael died on Saturday, 3 April 1897.

Rudolph LABUDDA	B 436	Portion	Section	Grave
		2	9	58

In 1872, Rudolph Labudda was born to Joseph Labudda and Karoline (née Geisler) in Kolkou, Prussia (Kołków, Poland). The family arrived in Brisbane on 06 August 1878 aboard the Lammershagen. On 13 August 1878, Rudolph was playing with other newly arrived immigrant children near Queen's Wharf, Brisbane River, when he died.

Frieda Klara Elise REBER (née DENECKE) Karl REBER	Z2 346 P3 705	Portion	Section	Grave
		2A	27	3/4/5

Frieda Klara Elisa Denecke, the eldest daughter of Frederick Denecke and Eva Maria (née Polt), was born on Wednesday 24 June 1857. Frieda and her family arrived in Brisbane aboard La Rochelle from Hamburg on 05 August 1863.
Karl Reber, the eldest son of Christian Reber and Rosina (née Stucker), was born in Thun, Switzerland on 20 November 1861. Aged 21 years, Karl migrated aboard Dorunda, arriving in Brisbane on Tuesday 13 February 1883. Frieda Klara Elise Denecke married Karl in the Lutheran Church, Wickham Street on Wednesday, 10 February 1886. Karl printed the Queenslander Herald and Nord Australische Zeitung in Elizabeth Street, Brisbane. Frieda died at their residence, Vereena, 642 St Paul's Terrace, Bowen Hills on Monday, 30 January 1939. Karl, a foundation member of the Brisbane Deutsche Turn-verein, died on Saturday, 05 August 1950.

Jacob VOGES	S 732	Portion	Section	Grave
		1	55	9/10

Rest gently weary from the struggle of fate, slumber now towards the better life, Hail to your tomb and peace and quiet flow forth on your corpse mound.

On Sunday, 4 July 1830, Jacob Voges was born in Gerstedt, Hannover to Andreas Voges and Gertrude (née Imroth). Jacob migrated from Hamburg to Queensland in 1863. Emilie Agnes Marquardt married Jacob in Brisbane on Sunday, 27 November 1870. In December 1870, Jacob became landlord of the European Hotel, Queen Street, opposite the Town Hall. In September 1874, after his naturalisation in 1871, Jacob applied for a billiard licence for the hotel. Transferring the European Hotel in March 1879, Jacob became the Australian Hotel proprietor, corner of Queen and Albert Streets, in November 1881 and added billiards from August 1882. From January 1886, Jacob again became licencee of the European Hotel, then added billiards. Jacob transferred the European Hotel in April 1887. On Tuesday, 16 March 1897, Jacob died at his residence, the Woolloongabba Hotel.

Johann Leonhard WUERSCHING	A1 907	Portion	Section	Grave
		13	16	32

Johann Wuersching and Elizabeth (née Gahring) welcomed their child, Johann Leonhard Wuersching, in Martinsheim, Bayern in 1835. Arriving in Brisbane from Hamburg aboard Beausite on 20 August 1866, Bertha Lather married Johann in Brisbane on Sunday 01 September 1867. A baker by trade, in October 1874 Johann moved his bakery from Margaret Street to Bowen Street, off Ann Street and located at the rear of Dr Hobbs'. Then, in November 1895, Johann moved his bakery to Wharf Street, Spring Hill, opposite Herbert Street. Johann died on Thursday, 21 December 1905.

Maria Martha HILLER	L1 892	Portion	Section	Grave
		13	15	5

On Thursday, 26 August 1880, Maria Martha Maier was born to Pastor Ernst Otto Maier and Albertine (née Bunzli) at German Station, Queensland (Nundah). Rev Eugen Hiller married Maria on Wednesday, 30 May 1900. Maria was an organist at St Andreas' Lutheran Church, Wickham Terrace. Maria died in Brisbane on Saturday, 4 December 1915.

Otto MERTENS	H1 766	Portion	Section	Grave
		6	8	12

Far from home rests here in peace

Born in Berlin on Friday, 1 August 1884, Otto Mertens became a zahlmeister (purser) for the Norddeutscher Lloyd. Arriving in Moreton Bay from Japan, Otto was found dying in his cabin aboard ss Prinz Waldemar on Saturday, 26 October 1912. Taken ashore, Otto remained unconcious, dying a couple of hours later.

Gustav Edward BERGEMANN	U2 903	Portion	Section	Grave
		24	3	15

The eldest son of Johann Gustav Bergemann and Johanna Charlotte (née Toetz),