2278 George McVeigh	Portion	Section	Grave
link | 68th[nd] (Durham Regiment) Light Infantry	11	11	25/26

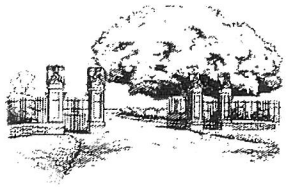

George Edward McVeigh was born in 1827 to James McVeigh and Selina (née Rice). George served for fifteen years, taking him to Burma, the Crimean War and Indian Mutiny (52nd (Oxfordshire) Regiment of Foot, Light Infantry), earning 3 medals and 6 clasps. He was awarded the Indian Mutiny medal with Defence of Lucknow clasp. George moved to Queensland in the 1860s and worked as a civil servant. George married Mary Ann McGill, who died on 19 November 1898. On 07 September 1915, aged 88 years, George died at his daughter's house in Toowoomba. He was laid to rest two days later. Mary Ann and some of their children are also buried here.

John MacDonald	Portion	Section	Grave
link | The 93rd Highlanders	14	22	20

John MacDonald, one of five children of Alexander MacDonald and Isabella (née Falconer), was born in 1836 in Nairnshire, Scotland. John served in the 93rd Highlanders in the Crimea, receiving a Crimean Medal with Alma, Balaklava, Inkermann & Sebastopol clasps. Aged 24 years in 1860, John married Alice Malcolm. On 10 October 1862 John was appointed Inspector of Water Police for the Port of Moreton Bay. On 21 May 1864 Inspector MacDonald was appointed Keeper of the Prison Hulk Proserpine. He remained with the Water Police until 14 May 1867, when he was appointed St Helena Penal Colony's first Superintendent. Alice died at St Helena on Thursday 08 September 1881. Her body was brought to Brisbane for burial. John effectively retired in April 1882, taking 12 months leave of absence to travel abroad. During that year John married Louisa Elizabeth McPherson. John died in his residence 1 Riverview Terrace, Hamilton on 18 June 1895 aged 59 years. John is buried with Alice and their son.

Select Sources

Wickes, Henry Leonard. Regiments of Foot: A Historical Record of All the Foot Regiments of the British Army. Reading: Osprey Pub., 1974. Print.
"Deceased Search", Brisbane City Council [https://graves.brisbane.qld.gov.au/]
"Family History Research", The State of Queensland, 2013. [https://www.qld.gov.au/law/births-deaths-marriages-and-divorces/family-history-research/]
"One Search", The State of Queensland (State Library of Queensland) 2016 [http://onesearch.slq.qld.gov.au/primo_library/libweb/action/search.do]
"Trove Digitised newspapers and more", National Library of Australia [trove.nla.gov.au]

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

Cardigan's Balaclava and the Crimean War

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Walk

Comic map of the seat of war with entirely new features. May 30th 1854
Bibliothèque nationale de France ark:/12148/btv1b530230320

July 1853	Russia occupies Wallachia and Moldovia
05 October 1853	Ottoman Empire declares war on Russia.
28 March 1854	France and England declare war on Russia
26 January 1855	Sardinia-Piedmont joins the alliance
30 March 1856	Treaty of Paris signed

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. | Version 1 January 2017

Robert Rodgers	Portion	Section	Grave
	13	2	17/18

Robert Rodgers, born on 17 September 1836, was a son of Stephen Rodgers and Elizabeth (née Ashworth). Aged 17 years, Robert joined the British Army and served in the Crimean War before a 12 year posting in India. After migrating to Australia, Robert worked as a carpenter in South Australia before heading north. On 15 April 1889, about eight months after his arrival in Brisbane, he drowned at North Quay aged 52 years. Robert's father, brother and sisters survived him. Robert is buried with his parents and sisters.

Charles Reich	Portion	Section	Grave
	5	29	17

Maine, USA is where Charles Reich's birth was registered in 1836 after his parents, Frank Reich (shipwright) and Harriet (née Reiss) emigrated from the area we now call Germany. Charles was awarded a Crimean Medal with Alma clasp. Charles arrived in Queensland in 1859. Charles married Ellen Flora Chappel on 03 February 1866 in the old Wesleyan Church, Ann Street, Brisbane. They had 12 children. In 1913 they resided in Hardgrove Road, West End. Ellen died on 12 November 1917. Charles, a Master Mariner, died on 05 July 1918, aged about 82 years. Charles is buried with Ellen.

1205 Robert Hartley Lofthouse	Portion	Section	Grave
link | 12th Lancers	1	103	14

On 05 June 1824 Robert Hartley Lofthouse was born in Clitheroe, Lancaster to John Lofthouse and Frances (née Hartley). Robert, a joiner by trade, enlisted into the 5th Dragoon Guard in York in May 1846. By the time of the Crimean War, Robert was with the 12th Lancers. He was awarded the Crimean Medal with Sebastopol clasp. Robert married Hannah Wilson (née Rhodes) in Leeds, Yorkshire in 1861 just prior to his army discharge in York on 24 July 1861. They arrived in Queensland about 1862. Hannah died in Brisbane in 1866. Robert married Sarah Geddes (née Way) in Brisbane in December 1868. Sarah died in 1898. Robert died in Brisbane on 15 December 1910. Robert is buried with Sarah and some of his children.

James Beech	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Royal Navy	1	20	11

James Beech was born to James Beech and Sarah (née Penny). James' five years in the Royal Navy included action in the Crimean War. He received the Baltic, Crimean (with Balaklava & Sebastopol clasps) & Turkish Medals. His wife Harriet died in 08 September 1883. James died at his residence "Trecarne", 1st Avenue, Eagle Junction on 24 July 1913 aged 83 years. He is buried with Harriet and one of his daughters.

James Dunbar	Portion	Section	Grave
	1	8	14

Andrew Dunbar and Hannah (née Wilson)'s son James Dunbar, was born around 1837. James served in the navy during the Crimean War. James married Mary Jane Blee. James served in Brisbane's fire brigade from 1867. He worked as a boot maker when not fighting fires. After retiring from the fire brigade, James resided in Thorne Street, Windsor. James died on 22 November 1920 aged 83 years and is buried with his wife and mother-in-law.

3451 John Igo	Portion	Section	Grave
link | 97th (The Earl of Ulster's) Regiment	18	41	15

John Igo was a son of John Igo and Mary (née Durham). John served in the Crimean War and Indian Mutiny, earning 3 medals and 2 clasps including the Indian Mutiny medal with Lucknow clasp. John resided in the Bachelor's Lodge, Roma Street and worked as a boot black in George Street, level with Burnett Lane. John died on 12 June 1911 aged 74 years.

Thomas Pidcock	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Osmanli Horse Artillery	8	6	2

In Ashbourne, Derbyshire on 09 October 1832 Thomas Pidcock was born to William Pidcock and Rachel (née Gadsby). Thomas was a Driver in the Osmanli Horse Artillery for two years during the Crimean War. He migrated to Australia aboard the British India Steamer Almora. Thomas married Louisa Susanna Binns on 21 December 1882 in Queensland They resided in Charles Street, Milton, then the corner of Earl & Juliette Streets, Thompson Estate. Thomas worked as a barber. Thomas died in August 1925, aged 93 years. Thomas is buried with Louisa.

2571/1455 John Roberts	Portion	Section	Grave
link | Royal Artillery	11	35	5

John Roberts was born about 1827 to Robert Roberts and Jane (née Faloon), in Shankhill, Lurgan, County Armagh, Ireland. Aged 18 years in 1846, John enlisted in the Royal Artillery. John's service in the Crimean War was recognised with the Crimean Medal with Sebastopol clasp and Turkish Medal. Discharged in 1868, John possessed five Good Conduct badges and a Long Service medal. John immigrated to Australia around 1897, settling in Brisbane near his brother. John died in Brisbane on 21 July 1908, aged 80 years.

Francis Joseph Pelissier	Portion	Section	Grave
link | 3rd Regiment of Artillery	24	11	20

Francis Pelissier was born to Francis Pelissier and Marion (née Courcey) in Toulouse, France about 1832. Frank was a first Lieutenant serving in the French Artillery during the Crimean War. Frank was awarded the Crimean Medal with clasps for Alma, Balaklava, Inkermann and Sebastopol. Frank migrated to Australia around 1879. In Australia, Frank worked in the smallgoods trade. Frank married Margaret Ann Lievesley (née Cort) in Brisbane in 1906. Frank died on 19 June 1914 in his residence, Elizabeth Street, Rosalie.