4517 Thomas Aspel HILL	Q1 122	Portion	Section	Grave
		7A	77	15/16/17

Thomas Hill and Ellen (née Hanley)'s son Thomas Aspin Hill (Bluey) was born in Brisbane on 10 April 1892.
Bluey, a waterside worker residing in East Street, New Farm, enlisted in the AIF on 22 September 1915.
Wounded in the back and elbow whilst in action in the Somme on 08 August 1916, Bluey received a medical discharge on 15 November 1917.
At 9pm on Christmas evening 1918, Bluey, a resident of 127 Kent Street Teneriffe, danced in the dining room at a friend's place in Bulimba. At 1:30am the following morning, Bluey died in the General Hospital, reportedly from acute brain affection, aged 26 years. There are 7 in this grave.

Edward Thomas HILL	X3 87	Portion	Section	Grave
		7	88	16/17

Edward Thomas Hill was born in Brisbane on 02 January 1887 to James Hill and Mary (née Carew).
Florence Maud Schmidt married Edward in Queensland on 28 October 1926.
Edward died on 05 August 1958 aged 71 years.
There are five in this grave, including Edward's parents, wife and half-sister.

John Edward Loader HILL	S2 558	Portion	Section	Grave
		16	19	1/2

John Edward Loader Hill was born in Brisbane on 20 August 1860, a son of John Hill and Ellen (née Loader).
John conducted dance classes in Brisbane, Ipswich and northern NSW during the late 1800s and early 1900s. Then, for about 11 ½ years until the end of 1930, John was the booking clerk at the People's Palace, corner of Ann and Edward Streets, Brisbane.
On 20 June 1935, John, aged 74 years, died at his residence "Warrington", Brookes Street, Bowen Hills, There are four others buried in this grave.

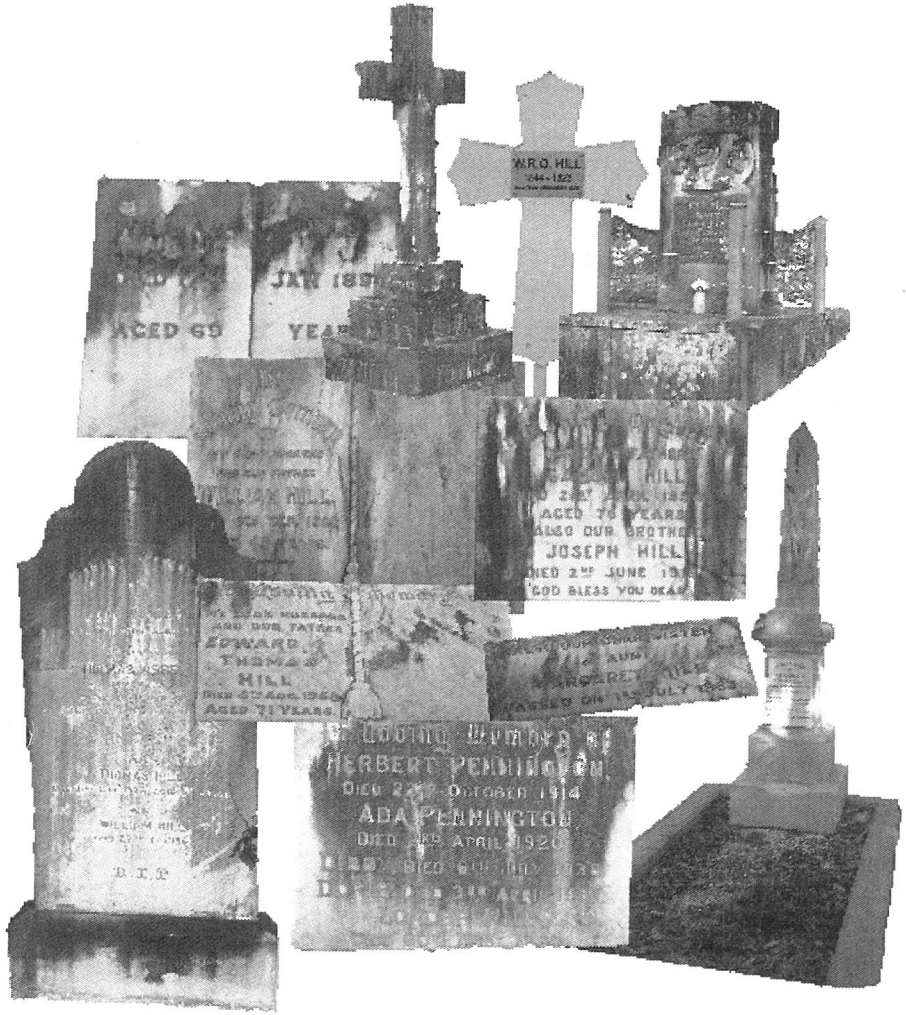

508 John Lawson HILL	P1 725	Portion	Section	Grave
		10	39	17

John Lawson Hill was born in Liverpool in early 1888.
When John enlisted in the AIF at Cairns on 06 July 1916, his listed occupation was engine driver. The tax office had John's profession as locomotive fireman and address as 2½ mile (Parap), Darwin.
Wounded east of Messines on 01 August 1917, John was left with right hemiplegia (paralysis) and aphasia (a comprehension & communication disorder). The AIF returned John to Australia and his discharge came on 25 November 1917.
John died in the Kangaroo Point Hospital (Yungaba), on 25 September 1918.

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

A Range of Hills

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. Version 1, May 2022

Percy Gordon HILL	U1 999	Portion	Section	Grave
		17	5	29

Percy Gordon Hill was a son of John William Hill and Lily Amelia (née Lawrence).
14-year-old Percy, a resident of First Avenue, Wilston, died in the Kedron Brook on Monday 19 December 1921.

HILL Family	Portion	Section	Grave
	13	61	3

George Henry Hill, born in Cornwall to John Hill in 1842, died in Brisbane on 21 October 1899.
Johanna Pentecost, a daughter of John Pentecost and Susanah (née Cornish), married George Henry Hill, labourer, on 08 July 1862 in St Keverne, Cornwall. Johanna died in Brisbane on 02 April 1927 aged 85 years.
George Henry and Johanna Hill had six Queensland born children.
The following three, all born in Brisbane, are buried with their parents.
George Henry Hill, born on 27 April 1872, died in Brisbane on 22 May 1888.
James Hubert Hill, who was born on 14 July 1880, died in Brisbane on 15 January 1898.
Charles Pentecost Hill was born on 14 April 1885 and died in Queensland on 18 February 1887.
Johanna's sister-in-law, Jessie Pentecost, a child of Lewis McPherson and Ann (née McBain), died in Brisbane on 06 October 1898 and is also here.

William HILL	T 412	Portion	Section	Grave
		11	8	11

William was born in Yorkshire c.1828 to John Hill.
Ellen Bateson married William in Leeds, Yorkshire on 27 May 1858. They had four children, all born in Leeds. A daughter, Laura, married Alfred Hemsley Richer, builder, who served as Mayor of Toowong in 1917 and 1918.
English censuses list William's jobs:- 1861 – cloth cap manufacturer clerk; 1871 – bookkeeper; 1881 – cordwainer (shoemaker).
William died on 17 January 1898 at his residence in Ascog-terrace, Toowong and is the only burial in this grave.

Charles Lumley HILL	E1 422	Portion	Section	Grave
		11	62	1/2/12

Charles Lumley Hill was born in August 1840 at Tickhill Castle, Yorkshire, a son of Colonel Charles John Hill and Lady Frances Charlotte Arabella (née Lumley). Through Lady Frances, Charles' lineage connects him to English and Scottish royalty.
Charles came to Queensland in 1864 and became MLA for Gregory in 1878, serving until 1882, when he returned to England for less than a year. Charles represented the Cook electorate from 1885 until 1888.
Edith Maud Taylor (née Harris) married Charles in All Saints, Brisbane on 24 July 1901.
Charles died of malaria at his residence Bellevue, near Esk, at 7am on 28 October 1909. Charles is buried with Edith, who died at Southport in 1925.

William Richard Onslow HILL	Y1 196	Portion	Section	Grave
		18	141	11

A son of Frederick William Hill and Emily (née Grantham), William Richard Onslow Hill was born in the barracks of the HM 10th Foot at St Heliers, Jersey, in 1844 and baptised at St Martin on 30 January 1845.
With his brothers Stanley and Cecil, Willie arrived in Queensland in June 1862 aboard The City of Brisbane. Willie followed Cecil into the Native Mounted Police, being sworn in for the second time on 01 October 1866. From 1868, Willie worked goldfields as a civil servant before becoming a Police Magistrate.
Emily Wilson married Willie in Ravenswood in October 1871. They had two Queensland-born sons. Emily died in Mackay in 1900.
Julie Webster married Willie in Mackay on 01 March 1902. Julie died in Southport in 1921.
Willie wrote "Forty-Five Years' Experiences in North Queensland", a book published in 1907. Willie died at his residence in Gregory Street, Auchenflower on 08 December 1923 and is the only burial in this grave.

Patrick Francis Joseph HILL	X3 82	Portion	Section	Grave
		25	49	1

Patrick Francis Hill was born in the Waverley district, NSW, on 15 June 1899 to James Hill and Margaret (née Mangan).
Pat lays claim to refereeing over 10000 fights and training over 1000 boxers. In December 1937 Pat was officially appointed as the Brisbane Stadium referee. In 1939, as a publicity stunt, Pat refereed a bout inside a lion's cage, complete with 2 boxers and 6 lions.
Pat died on 03 August 1958 and is the only burial in the grave.

William Frederick HILL	G2 443	Portion	Section	Grave
		27	3	14/15

William Hill was a son of William Hill and Sarah (née Hitchman).
Ethel Maud Nelson married William in Queensland on 10 April 1907.
A resident of Helen Street, off Commercial Road, Fortitude Valley, William received internal and spinal injuries from a shooting board while working in Toorak Road, Hamilton about 3.25pm Wednesday 05 September 1928.
William, 45 years of age, was conveyed to the Brisbane Hospital, where he died on Saturday 08 September 1928. There are six in this grave.

Samuel HILL	T3 210	Portion	Section	Grave
		7A	179	1/2

John Hill and Ellen (née Close)'s son Samuel was born in Queensland on 14 February 1875.
Agnes Wilson and Samuel, both of Mount Brisbane, Brisbane Valley, married in St Stephen's Cathedral, Brisbane in May 1911. They had seven Queensland born children.
Samuel, a resident of Greenwood Street, Ashgrove, died on 21 April 1954.
Two of Samuels' children are also buried in this grave.