| Andrew Stephen Wallace | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| Wallace, Warren & Co. | 9 | 46 | 9 |

Andrew Stephen Wallace, the son of Patrick Maxwell Stewart Wallace and Janet came to Brisbane from Richmond Victoria. Eva Sarah Cain married Andrew in Brisbane on 14 October 1882. They resided in Katrine Street, West End.
Wallace, Warren & Co, a company founded by Andrew and Lewis Peter Warren was liquidated in 1893.
Travelling in a hansom cab on Tuesday 08 May 1900, Andrew died of general congestion of the liver and kidneys and an inefficient ventral valve of the heart.

| Leonard John Canning | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| recapture | 24 | 2 | 9 |

Leonard was born in Caboolture, Queensland on 24 May 1888 to Robert George Canning and Ellen (née Silcock). On 01 June 1909, Leonard signed up for five years in the Navy. Leonard was assigned to HMS Pyramus as a Stoker II Class.
Leonard married Louisa Genetta Wolff in Brisbane in 1920.
Leonard died in Brisbane on 20 April 1930.

Select Sources

"Cemeteries Search: Deceased Search", Brisbane City Council. [https://graves.brisbane.qld.gov.au/]
"Digitised Newspapers and more", National Library of Australia. [http://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/?q=]
"Family History Research", The State of Queensland, 1995-2016.[https://www.qld.gov.au/law/births-deaths-marriages-and-divorces/family-history-research/]
"One Search", The State of Queensland", 2016. [http://onesearch.slq.qld.gov.au/primo_library/libweb/action/search.do]

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

Brisbane's CBD: Charlotte Street
Friends of Toowong Cemetery Walk

Not to scale

Heritage Registered Buildings

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 10 | St Luke's Church of England | Qld & BCC |
| 26 & 36 | John Reid & Nephews Building façade | BCC |
| 40 | John Mills Himself Building | Qld & BCC |
| 42 | George Weston & Sons Workshop | BCC |
| 120 | Pan Australia House façade | BCC |
| 139-145 | Charlotte House | Qld & BCC |
| 163 | Walter Reid Building façade | BCC |
| 168 | F H Faulding Warehouse | BCC |
| 172 | St Stephens School | Qld & BCC |
| 185 | Prince of Wales (now Victory) Hotel | BCC |

| John Charles Mills | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| John Mills Himself building, 40 Charlotte Street | 4 | 32 | 16 |

John Charles Mills was born in Brisbane on 07 May 1873 to Samuel Mills and Anna Maria (née Brown). John married Sarah Nicholson in Brisbane on 15 January 1896. They had two sons and two daughters. John worked as a printer for Watson, Ferguson & Co. then from 1906 as Mills, Green & Co. before striking out on his own around 1908. The heritage listed John Mills Himself building at 40 Charlotte Street Brisbane was built in 1919. John resided in Dunne (now 107 Kadumba) Street, Yeronga (also heritage listed). John died on 23 January 1931 aged 57 years. He spent his final couple of months confined to bed by illness. His wife and children survived him. Sarah died on 06 February 1953 and was buried here the next day.

| Percy Lionel Benjamin | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| Manager, S Hoffnung & Co Ltd, 203 Charlotte St | 3 | 12 | 7/8 |

Percy Lionel Benjamin was born in Fitzroy, Melbourne on 06 May 1865 to Sir Benjamin Benjamin (one time Mayor of Melbourne) and Fanny (née Cohen).
Percy joined the firm of S. Hoffnung & Co. in 1884 and shortly afterwards headed to Brisbane to work as a traveller for them before his promotion to management in January 1899. Percy was taken ill on Sunday morning 01 March 1903 at his residence in the Gresham Hotel. Percy, aged 37 years, died of peripheral neuritis on Tuesday morning at 08:58 in the Victoria Private Hospital, Stanley Street West, South Brisbane (near the Victoria Bridge).
Percy's monument was consecrated on 04 October 1903. It was reputedly the largest piece of marble cut in Queensland at the time.

| John Henders | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| Prince of Wales Hotel, cnr Edward & Charlotte Sts | 1 | 148 | 18/19 |

John Henders was born in 1861, the son of John Henders. John was sworn into the Queensland Police Force on 01 September 1883. John served about 03 years in the regular police in Brisbane and 14 years in the detective force, before being transferred to the regular force in Gympie. He also served in Rockhampton and Normanton. John married Martha (née Foster). Four daughters and two sons were born in Queensland. John retired from the police force on 16 August 1915 due to failing health. John died at his home in Elizabeth Street Rosalie on 15 March 1923. John's wife, two daughters and a son are also buried here.

| Mary Coakley | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| 53 Charlotte Street | 7A | 101 | 10/11 |

Mary was the daughter of William O'Brien and Ellen (née Daly).
Mary married cab proprietor, Daniel Coakley. They had one daughter.
They lived in Elfin Street, East Brisbane at the time of Daniel's death in September 1933. Mary died on 27 August 1941. Mary's mother and husband are also buried here.

| Emanuel Anastasakas | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| Brisbane Stadium | 18 | 173 | 2 |

Born to John Anastaskas in Pereus, Greece, Emanuel migrated to Australia aged 25 years, settling in New South Wales.
About 18 months prior to his death, Emanuel came to Brisbane and set up as a bootmaker in the Brisbane Stadium.
Emanuel, aged around 50 years, died at about 11pm on the 26 January 1933 on his way from the Greek Club, 46 Charlotte Street, back to the Stadium.

| John Reid | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| John Reid | 12 | 35 | 28 |

John Reid was born in Glasgow, the son of Joseph Reid and Jane (née Jenkins)
In 1894, John opened an iron and steel business in Edward Street, Brisbane. John married Antonia Jane Somerville (née Soady).
John's sudden death at his home Ballymore, off Herston Road, Kelvin Grove was caused by acute pneumonia on 11 September 1901. John was 48 years of age.
Other burials here include John's wife and his three step-daughters.

| David Dickie Reid | Portion | Section | Grave |
|---|---|---|---|
| link \| John Reid & Nephews | 11 | 33 | 2 |

David Dickie Reid was born on 31 July 1875 at Cathcart, Renfrewshire, Scotland to James Reid and Agnes Mair (née Dickie). David was educated at the Kelvinhaugh public school and Athenaeum College, Glasgow before migrating to Sydney in 1895. David joined the firm of JR Reid and Sons as a bookkeeper, later becoming their NSW travelling representative.
David won Queensland Lawn Bowls Championships in pairs, fours and was the 1908 Queensland Lawn Bowls Singles Champion.
In 1912 David and his brothers James and Robert bought the business of his late uncle, John Reid. They changed the trading name to John Reid and Nephews.
David eventually bought out the partners to become the sole proprietor.
Olive May Connors married David in Brisbane in 1922. They had a daughter.
David, aged 76 years, died at his residence "Ballochmyle" 101 Adelaide Street, Clayfield on 06 October 1951.