collapsed. Resuscitation failed. Frederick died on the operating table at 1:15pm, Sunday 06 April 1930.

Eleanor Annie BUGSLAG	T1 833	Portion	Section	Grave
		18	158	26

Born in Brisbane on 17 January 1891, Eleanor Bugslag was a daughter of Carl Bugslag, shipwright and Mary (née Johnston).
On 12 March 1921, Eleanor was at the altar of the Congregational Church, Manly, marrying George Crawford, when she collapsed.

William Neal GILLIES	F2 422	Portion	Section	Grave
		18	106	20

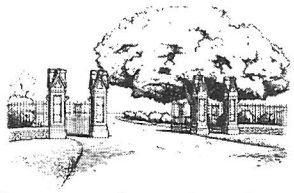

Born on 27 October 1868 to Dougald Gillies and Mary (née Gillies) in the Paterson district, NSW, William Neal (Billy) Gillies was also educated in the district.
In Casino, NSW on 05 December 1894 Margaret Smith married William.
Billy, a sugar cane grower and farmer was lured to the Atherton Tableland by its fertile land. Billy won the seat for Eacham in 1912 and served as Queensland's 21st Premier from 26 February until 22 October 1925.
On Thursday 09 February 1928, as Billy walked through his home in St Osyth Street, Toowong, preparing to head into town, he collapsed.
Both the Gillies Highway, running from Gordonvale to Atherton and the Gillies Range that it crosses, are named after Billy.

Davena ALPIN	N3 998	Portion	Section	Grave
		18	41	12

Davena Alpin was a daughter of Herbert Alpin and Maria (née Macleary), who resided at the Seventh Day Adventist Church's Mona Mona Mission, Kuranda. Flown from Cairns, sponsored by the Queensland Bush Children's Health Scheme (BUSHKids), 15-month-old Davena underwent an operation for her harelip and cleft palate at the Brisbane Children's Hospital on 13 December 1948. Under anesthetic the surgery was progressing well when Davena collapsed. Davena rallied briefly, before succumbing.

Select Sources

Archives Search, The State of Queensland (https://www.archivessearch.qld.gov.au/)
Family history research service, The State of Queensland 2021 (https://www.familyhistory.bdm.qld.gov.au/)
One Search, The State of Queensland (State Library of Queensland) 2025 (https://onesearch.slq.qld.gov.au)
Trove, National Library of Australia (https://trove.nla.gov.au/)

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc.

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Walk

CO SE L LAP

September 2025

Christian & Christian John JORGENSEN	G2 958 K2 404	Portion	Section	Grave
		4	29	12

Christian John Jorgensen was born in Brisbane on 27 November 1913, the eldest son of Christian Jorgensen and Euphemia (née McDonald).
On 22 December 1928, 15 years of age Christian, a resident of Terrace-street, Toowong, crossed the Brisbane River at Toowong aboard a dinghy with a brother and friend. They began playing with some boards they found on the riverbank. Whilst playing a sailing boat pulled in and the boys were told to leave the boards alone. Christian ended up in the river retrieving the dinghy, when he collapsed. Christian's body was recovered at 8:45am on Monday 24 December 1928. Cause of death was asphyxia by drowning.

Christian Jorgensen was a son of Christian Jorgensen and Clare (née Fusmann). Euphemia McDonald married Christian in Queensland on Wednesday 14 June 1913. Christian was a Toowong Cemetery employee. Not feeling well on Wednesday 03 December 1930, Christian left his home in the early evening intending to consult a doctor. Christian boarded a city-bound tram and collapsed from his seat as they passed Milton.

Salomon Siegmund BERENS	B 782	Portion	Section	Grave
		3	3	19

Salomon Siegmund Berens, a son of Philipp Salomon Berens and Fanny (née Lowenstein) was born in Hamburg, German Confederation, on Friday 27 May 1831. Siegmund arrived in Hobson's Bay, Victoria aboard the steamer Columbian on Monday 06 July 1857.
Siegmund partnered Armand Ranniger, forming Berens, Ranniger & Co., Merchants and Commission Agents, Mary Street, Brisbane from Thursday 01 July 1869, after the collapse of Messrs. Kohn and Co.
On Friday 10 January 1879, Berens, Ranniger & Co. stopped payment and it was soon learnt that Siegmund had left his home early that morning and had not been seen since. Siegmund's body was discovered in the Brisbane River on Sunday 12 January between 6 and 7am.

5349 Frederick HERD	I2 880	Portion	Section	Grave
		10	61	12

A son of George Henry Herd and Annie (née Lamb), Frederick Herd married Catherine Shiels in Mitchell, Queensland on Monday 21 December 1914 and again on Wednesday, 19 March 1919, this time in Brisbane.
Frederick, a carpenter, enlisted in the AIF on 29 February 1914 and was assigned to the 14/26th Battalion. A gunshot wound to Frederick's back caused a medical discharge on 15 November 1917.
A storekeeper, residing in Shaw Street, Auchenflower, Frederick had a day at Southport on Sunday, 12 January 1930. Coming out of the surf, Frederick collapsed. Interestingly, newspaper reports initially reported Frederick as single.

Gordon Barclay WINCHESTER	V2 38	Portion	Section	Grave
		16	23	9

John Barclay, AIF veteran and tailor and Edith Jane (nee Pike)'s son, Gordon Barclay Winchester, lived at Amity Point, where his father ran a boarding house. On Wednesday 02 September 1936, Gordon and his sister were tunnelling at Amity Point's main beach headland, when a 20-foot (approx. 6m) tall cliff collapsed.

James Robb WARD	R3 614	Portion	Section	Grave
		15	7	17

James Robb Ward, a son of James Robert Ward, blacksmith and Ide Wilhelmine (née Strofeld), was born in Queensland on Sunday, 27 December 1896. Sworn into the Queensland Police on Wednesday 28 July 1920, James was number 2490. During his police career, James was stationed at Coen, Cairns, Thursday Island, Gladstone and Brisbane.
Widow Ann Killen Collie married James in the Cairns Roman Cathilc Church on the evening of Tuesday, 26 July 1927.
Police Constable Ward was walking to work at the Woolloongabba Police Station on Sunday, 03 August 1952, when he collapsed.

Eveline Reta GELLING	V1 315	Portion	Section	Grave
		15	23	25/26

Queensland born Eveline Reta Gelling birth was born on Monday, 11 December 1899 to Edward Henry Gelling and Elizabeth Harriett (née Devereux).
On Sunday, 26 February 1922 Reta was one of the Herston Tennis Club party onboard a boat that left Seventeen Mile rocks at 6:30pm. As the boat approached the Toowong landing, the wooden awning collapsed, sending 22 people into the Brisbane River.

Susan BURKE	N2 42	Portion	Section	Grave
		7A	54	4

Susan Kennedy was a daughter of Patrick Kennedy and Susan (nee Baxter).
John Burke married Susan in Brisbane on Wednesday, 19 June 1895.
On 25 May 1932 Susan, a resident of 321 Given Terrace, Paddington, went to the Brisbane General Hospital as a visitor. Susan slipped on the polished verandah, breaking her left thigh, requiring setting in plaster. On 07 June 1932, Susan collapsed and died at the Brisbane General Hospital.

Frederick BROAD	J2 227	Portion	Section	Grave
		25	20	4

Frederick Board was born to Robert Broad and Mary (née Godden).
Frederick, of Sidney House, River Road, Toowong, complained of an irritation in his throat to his wife on Saturday evening, 05 April 1930. Awakened by a severe pain in his throat at 5am on Sunday morning, Frederick sought the assistance of a doctor at 8:45am. After an examination, the men travelled to Wickham Terrace to surgically remove, under local anaesthetic, an item embedded in his pharynx. Unsuccessful in this attempt, Frederick was removed to St Martin's Hospital for a general anaesthetic. The operation was nearly concluded when Frederick