8. Beryl Elizabeth McLeish	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	20	55	23

Public Servant

- Beryl was born on 6 February 1902 at Gympie, to Gympie-born parents Walter Henry King, engine driver, and Alice Mary Marshall, a music teacher.
- State Superintendent of the Australian Women's Land Army.
- Passed on 10 January 1974 at Auchenflower at age 71.

Sources

- Ancestry.com
- Anzac Square and Memorial Galleries (Facebook site)
- Australian Dictionary of Biography, National Centre of Biography, Australian National University
- Australian War Memorial
- Aviation museum of WA
- BDM Queensland Index Search', The State of Queensland (Department of Justice and Attorney General)
- John Oxley Library
- Queensland State Archives
- State Library of Queensland
- Stockman's Hall of Fame website
- Trove, Digitised Newspapers, National Library of Australia (https://trove.nla.gov.au/)
- Wikipedia

Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc

Guided Heritage Walk

Members of the Women's Land Army and soldiers assembled for a parade, 1945
(Source SLQ, out of copyright)

THE FEMALE WAR EFFORT

© Friends of Toowong Cemetery Association Inc. Website www.fotc.au
Version 1, 1 March 2026 Compiled and presented by Melissa Wren

1. Mary Harriet Griffith	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	13	77	12

Philanthropist

- Born 4 November 1849 in Somerset England third of five children of Rev Edward Griffith and his wife Mary and the older sister of Sir Samuel Griffith.
- A strict, religious lady and well known around Brisbane she spent her whole life helping those less fortunate than herself. She did not marry or have children.
- Passed on 27 July 1930 age 80.

2. Lady Marie Cowley	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	8	9	16

Noted war worker

- Marie Campbell was born in South Africa on 10 April 1860 to William John Campbell and Agnes Sanderson. Her husband was Sir Alfred Sandilands Cowley.
- Marie came from a well known family and had a fortunate upbringing. She was awarded an OBE for her work for the soldiers, notably as founder of the Qld Soldier's Comforts Fund.
- Passed on 26 May 1940 at the age of 80.

3. Mary Josephine Bedford	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	8	69	13

Philanthropist

- Mary Josephine Bedford who went by her second name of Josephine was born in England in 24 November 1861 to George Bedford and Eleanor Steele and was the niece of Admiral Sir Frederick George Denham Bedford GCB, Governor of Western Australia 1903-1909.
- Josephine worked in hospitals overseas during the war and was head of the war ambulance service ferrying the injured to safety.
- She passed on 22 December, 1955 at the age of 94.

4. Katherine Glasson Taylor	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	8	71	37

Novelist

- 'Kitty' was born 8 July 1893 during the flood at in Goondiwindi on the family properly called Kymanna. She was the daughter of William Glasson and Mary Treweeke.
- Katherine was a notable children's book publisher writing under the pen name of Kay Glasson in addition to obtaining a degree in medicine which she used when working in the army medical research unit during the war.
- Private Katherine Glasson Taylor passed on 14th March 1998, aged 104 years.

5. Olive Agnes Tighe	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	27	1	2

Clerk

- Born on 1 August 1920, in Stonehenge Queensland to Clifford Kelly and his wife Mary Akers where Clifford was a storekeeper.
- Olive enlisted in the Women's Auxiliary Australian Air Force on 25 October 1941 at the age of 21 and worked in clerical roles. In May 1942 she was promoted to temporary corporal and in January 1943 to temporary Sergeant then in August that year to temporary flight sergeant. She was working as a general clerk then a medical clerk throughout that time.
- Flight Sergeant Olive Agnes Tighe passed on 2 December 2011 aged 91.

6. Dorothy Frances Davies	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	7A	194B	8

Laundress and cook

- Born on 27 September 1907 in Tasmania to Alfred James Divene and Jean Hutchinson.
- Dorothy enlisted in the Women's Auxiliary Aust Air Force (WAAAF) and served as 4th Class with the 8th Service Flying Training School in Bundaberg and was recognised for her contributions to aviation.
- Aircraftwoman 4th Class Dorothy Frances Davies passed on 26 November 1947 age 40 in the Greenslopes Repatriation hospital.

7. Leonie Catherine Gleeson	Portion	Section	Grave Number
	15	31	34

Teacher

- Born in Brisbane on 18 March 1917 to Robert Gleeson and Catherine Foley.
- A talented writer at school, mainly about soldiers and the war, with work published in the newspaper. Enlisted at age 25 and worked as a telegraphist.
- Aircraftwoman Leonie Catherine Gleeson passed on 13 August 1978 at the age of 61 at Greenslopes Repatriation hospital.